

Queensmill School

Equality Policy

The Equality Act 2010 – School Policy April 2019

Introduction

Queensmill School is committed to preventing discrimination, valuing diversity, promoting equality and dignity of all pupils, families, staff and visitors to the school. We are committed to ensuring equal treatment of all, regardless of gender, race, nationality, ethnic origin, socio-economic status, disability, religion, age or sexual orientation. We believe all should feel welcome and have an equal chance to benefit from our school and everything it provides.

Our school mission statement:

“A caring environment where we respect and value children for what they are, help them to understand the world around them and teach them the skills to manage their autistic behaviours.”

We aim to:

- Value everyone in our community as individuals in their own right
- Ensure equal access for all to the curriculum
- Understand the multi-cultural nature of our community
- Foster inclusive attitudes
- Ensure our staff feel valued

The Law

Our legal duties are set out in the Equality Act 2010. This Act brings together lots of different equality laws, many of which have existed for a long time. By doing this, the Act makes equality law simpler and easier to understand. As a school we have duties under the Act towards people with 7 out of the 9 “protected characteristics”.

For pupils these are:

1. Age

2. Disability
3. Gender reassignment
4. Race
5. Religion or belief
6. Sex
7. Sexual orientation

For staff these include:

- 8 Marriage and civil partnership
- 9 Pregnancy and maternity

Our legal duties are to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimization
- Promote equality of opportunity
- Promote good relations between people from different backgrounds

We can also take positive action to tackle pupils' different needs or disproportionately low participation of a particular pupil group. Such action could include targeted provision, resources or putting in place additional or bespoke provision to benefit a particular disadvantaged pupil group.

Implementation

We want equality to be at the heart of all our school policies so we will assess the impact of policies on equality in the school's policy review cycle. It is important that all staff and governors fully understand equality issues so that they put them into practice daily in all areas of school life. We will provide necessary training to ensure they are clear about their responsibilities on diversity and equality related issues. We have policies relating to disability, gender and race equality, harassment and bullying. We also have formal procedures for dealing with a discriminatory incident.

What is a discriminatory incident?

Harassment on grounds of race, gender, disability, sexual orientation or other factors such as socio-economic status, can take many forms including verbal or physical abuse, name calling, exclusion from groups and games, unwanted looks or comments, jokes and graffiti.

A racist incident is defined by the Stephen Lawrence Inquiry Report (1999) as 'any incident which is perceived to be racist by the victim or any other person'.

Types of discriminatory incidents

Types of discriminatory incidents that can occur are:

- Physical assault against a person or group because of their race, colour, religion, nationality, disability, gender or sexual orientation;
- Verbal abuse and threats;
- Use of derogatory names/terms, insults and jokes;
- Racist, sexist, homophobic or discriminatory graffiti;
- Provocative behaviour such as wearing racist, sexist, homophobic or discriminatory badges, insignia or clothing
- Bringing discriminatory material into school;
- Discriminatory comments in the course of discussion;
- Incitement of others to discriminate against or bully a person due to race, colour, religion, nationality, disability, gender or sexual orientation;
- Attempts to recruit others to discriminatory organisations and groups;
- Ridicule of an individual for any other personal characteristic e.g. food, clothing, personal appearance etc;
- Refusal to co-operate or associate with those who possess one of the 9 characteristics or other personal characteristic

How do we eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation?

- Ensuring that all staff read and understand the Code of Conduct for Schools
- Ensuring that all staff know how to identify and challenge prejudice and stereotyping and to support the full range of diverse needs according to pupils' individual circumstances.
- Expecting staff to deal with any discriminatory incidents that may occur
- Ensuring in the event of any incident in school relating to discrimination, harassment and victimisation that procedures are followed and incidents are recorded and dealt with through the appropriate channels

- Monitoring and reporting such incidents to the Head teacher and reporting racist incidents to the governing body and local authority on a termly basis.
- Supporting students and families who encounter harassment in the community, understanding that children who live in fear cannot learn.
- Using opportunities in school and assemblies to deal with issues of prejudice and discrimination.
- Supporting staff, students and their families who encounter harassment on school premises by people who are not employees of the school,
- Encouraging staffroom discussion of equality issues which reflect on social stereotypes, expectations and the impact on learning.
- Exploring opportunities throughout the curriculum to promote anti-racism and inclusion, e.g. visits to community organisations, places of religious worship, use of the media, visiting speakers from local minority ethnic communities and disabled people's organisations.
- Purchasing and reviewing resources, such as books, posters and ICT software to ensure they are inclusive.
- Ensuring our admissions arrangements are fair and transparent and do not discriminate on race, gender, disability or socio-economic factors.
- Ensuring at the admission interview that all parents are aware and support our policy
